

Wanda Soon
Executive Consultant
Menlo Park, CA

Wanda has over 25 years of experience in the Workers' Compensation industry. She began her career as a Workers' Compensation Claims Examiner with Farmers Insurance and then moved onto other insurance carriers such as AIG and Republic Indemnity, handling claims from inception to closure. In her current role as a Claims Consultant, she helps to manage and oversee our clients' workers' compensation claims. She interacts with claims personnel and advocates on behalf of the clients to ensure their claims are handled properly and efficiently. Wanda graduated from the University of California at Berkeley and holds a B.S. Degree in English and Asian American Studies. She also a WCCA and a CAWC certificate for workers' compensation. Prior to her insurance career, she worked as a journalist, editor and desktop publisher for small newspapers.
