

Dan Nevarez
Executive Claims Consultant
Los Angeles, CA

Dan's experience as a Workers' Compensation adjuster and defense attorney allows him to skillfully assist you on both litigated and non-litigated claims. He will act as your advocate and provide timely service to all commitments while taking an aggressive and proactive approach in the claims monitoring role. He is also available to assist you with any claims management issues or concerns.

Prior to joining Heffernan, Dan spent the last 5 years in the Workers' Compensation industry both as an adjuster and defense attorney for a major carrier, handling claims and making appearances before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board of varying complexity. Now that he is positioned on the broker side with Heffernan Insurance Brokers, Dan is perfectly situated to help clients navigate the complex California Workers' Compensation system. Dan is licensed to practice law in the state of California and all United States District Courts of California.

Dan graduated from the University of Notre Dame Law School with his Juris Doctor and from Chapman University with his BA in Political Science. A native of Southern California, Dan is an avid runner and sports fan. He currently resides in Granite Bay, CA, with his wife, Carla, and their sons, Decker and Nelson.
