- ▶ Decreased violations, fines and targeted audits
- ▶ Fewer inspections and improved brand reputation

Why It Matters

In 2023, Amazon received a $60K+ citation for recordkeeping violations. Even small mistakes carry steep consequences. Medcor helps you avoid:

- ✓ Incomplete or delayed reports
- ✓ Incorrect incident classification
- ✓ Missed deadlines
- ✓ Staff burnout from administrative burden

Your Compliance Safety Net

Our OSHA Services are backed by Medcor's 40+ years of occupational health expertise. Clients include North America's largest companies, including a retailer where we eliminated late reporting penalties and fines while dramatically reducing internal resources. No matter the industry, Medcor offers peace of mind through reliable, proven solutions.

Add-On Support

- + Custom OSHA safety training for your team
- + Trend analysis to identify root causes
- + Guidance for reducing future incidents and claims

How It Works

Incident Occurs

Your team contacts Medcor's 24/7 response line.

Triage & Evaluation

We assess the incident and determine reportability in real time.

OSHA Submission

We submit all required OSHA reports on your behalf, within the mandated window.

Documentation & Tracking

We manage all forms and documentation, storing them for OSHA access and future audits.

Ongoing Compliance Monitoring

We keep your records accurate and updated year-round—and handle annual submissions (like OSHA 300A by March 2).

Let's Simplify OSHA Compliance

No more scrambling, second-guessing or stressing over audits. Medcor takes care of OSHA reporting and recordkeeping from start to finish—accurately, on time and always in compliance.
